

CYPMHC launches with 28 member organisations.

Our lobbying ensures that the new 'No Health Without Mental Health' strategy includes children and young people.

Published "Resilience and Results" guide on how to improve mental wellbeing of children and young people in schools.

A Whole School and College Approach Framework published, in partnership with Public Health England.

CYPMHC actively influences "Future in Mind" leading to £1.25 billion in funding

Professor Dame Sue Bailey chairs the first schools-led Commission on pupils' mental health. SCHOOLS NorthEast established

Provided evidence to Parliamentary committee's inquiry into CYPMH and the role of education.

Gave evidence to the Education Committee and the the Public Accounts Committee. Influenced the development of the Green Paper on children's mental health

CYPMHC works with the Partnership for Wellbeing and Mental Health in Schools to ensure there is a greater focus on mental health in Ofsted's new inspection framework.

2010

2011

2012

2013

2014

2015

2016

2017

2018

2019

Meeting with Minister for Mental Health, Paul Burstow - prompts Government to give greater priority to children and young people's mental health.

IAPT extends to include children and young people and then leverages funds to create MindEd.

Audit of commissioning landscape "Overlooked and forgotten" launched, prompting local reviews of young people's mental health needs.

CYPMHC lobbying prompts Government to commission "prevalence survey" in 2018.

CYPMHC sponsor the 'Values-Based Child and Adolescent Mental Health System Commission' who later publish their findings

Influencing government policy to encourage statutory PSHE.

Launch of new CYPMHC strategy to focus on prevention, early intervention and workforce development.

CYPMHC publishes: Overshadowed on the mental health needs of young people with learning disabilities and Making the Grade on the young people's wellbeing in education.